The Bon's annum Fiesta women's Day and champions Day, where conducted with great fervor and academic Pride, showcasing a vibrant blend of cultural heritage and students excellence on 14.03.2026. The event which spanned from 09:45 AM to 01:20 PM, serve as a testament to the holistic development and spirit of the institution. The program commenced at 09:45 AM with a serene atmosphere as the prayer song and Tamil Thaaai vaazhthu were rendered. Princy sister officially welcomed the gathering, setting a warm and hospitable tone for the day. The proceedings moved into the formal felicitation and honoring the chief guest, followed by a graceful welcome dance performed by the students. Our principal sister Rev.Sr.Dr.Sirumalar presented the annual report, providing comprehensive look at the college's milestones, academic achievements and the progress made throughout the academic year. The mid- session was a high energy display of artistic diversity, ranging from traditional storytelling to modern choreography. The stage came alive with a variety of styles, including a high-octane Western dance, cultural rooted Tamil department dance, a rhythmic tribal dance, a spirited Punjabi dance. Students displayed their acting prowess through an English drama and a thought provoking Mime performance. Unique performance like Kantara themed act and the snake dance were major highlights, drawing significant applause for their creativity. The event was graced by several personalities who shared the insights and encouraged the student body. Mrs.Indravalli (Rtd deputy collector) Revenue department, delivered a motivating felicitation, followed by address from RTN.Mr.Shanmugam (Founder Swagat & Arasan estate, President-Tamil Nadu Football Association) and Mr. Suresh Kumar (Founder- Sri Radha silks , Dindigul). Mr.K.Palani (A Vijay TV fame, Kalakka povathu yaaru champion, Actor & Motivational speaker) delivered and engaging speech that resonated with the audience. Excellent in various fields was recognized during the prize distribution ceremony, celebrating the hard work and dedication of the students. The program drew to formal close with vote of thanks proposed by Mrs Joseph Celine ma'am expressing gratitude to the organizers, guests and participants. The event concluded with solemn tradition of the College anthem and the national anthem winding up officially at 01:20 PM
