Subject: Request for Permission to Conduct Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme – Reg.

Respected Madam,

We kindly request your permission to conduct an Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme on 14.07.2026 at 10.00 a.m. for the first-year students of our college. The programme aims to create awareness about the ill effects of ragging, promote a safe and friendly campus environment, educate students about anti-ragging laws and regulations, and encourage mutual respect among students. We believe that this programme will help students understand their rights and responsibilities and contribute to maintaining a ragging-free campus. We therefore request you to kindly grant permission to organize the programme.

Thanking you.

Place: Dindigul

Yours Sincerely,

Anti-Ragging Cell Coordinator

ANTI RAGGING AWARENESS PROGRAMME- REPORT

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAMME:

- Teach students to be kind and respect each other.
- Give students easy ways to report bullying to teachers.
- Stop seniors or groups from teasing, hurting, or scaring new students.

REPORT:

The Anti-Ragging Cell of Bon Secours Arts and Science College for Women, Dindigul, successfully organized an Awareness Programme on "Beyond Ragging, Building Bonds" on 14th July 2026 (Tuesday) at 10.00 a.m. in the College Auditorium. The programme was conducted with the objective of creating awareness among students about the harmful effects of ragging, promoting mutual respect, and fostering a safe, friendly, and inclusive campus environment. The event witnessed the enthusiastic participation of faculty members and students, especially the first-year students.

The programme commenced with the Tamil Thai Vazhthu. This was followed by the Welcome Address delivered by Ms. Priya Dharshini, Co-ordinator of the Anti-Ragging Cell, who welcomed the Secretary, Principal, Resource persons, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students.

The Presidential Address was delivered by Dr. S. Gayathri, Principal, who emphasized the importance of maintaining a ragging-free campus and encouraged students to uphold discipline, respect, equality, and compassion.

The awareness session was conducted by Mr. P. Prakash, SSI, and Mrs. A. Bakiyalakshmi, SSI. They explained the legal provisions against ragging, its harmful effects, various forms of ragging, preventive measures, and the importance of reporting incidents without fear. They motivated students to build healthy relationships based on friendship, dignity, and mutual respect.

The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Ms. R. Chitra, who expressed sincere gratitude to the Management, Principal, Resource persons, faculty members, non-teaching staff, students, and the organizing committee for their support and cooperation in making the programme a grand success. The programme concluded with the National Anthem. Overall, the event was highly informative and successful, strengthening students' awareness of anti-ragging laws and reinforcing the institution's commitment to providing a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus for all.

Programme outcomes:

- Students gained a clear understanding of the meaning, forms, and consequences of ragging.
- Awareness was created about the legal provisions and punishments related to ragging.
- Students understood their rights, responsibilities, and the importance of maintaining discipline on campus.
- Confidence was built among students to report ragging incidents without fear.
