DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE & APPLICATIONS

Report on “Fresher’s day celebration – Nov 2020”

The Department of Computer science had organized “Fresher’s day celebration” in view of welcoming the first year students of Department of Computer Science on 04.11.2020. Maximum effort in organizing the program was given by the second year students. The program starts with lightening the lamp and the program was felicitated by our honorable principal Dr.S.Gayathri and the keynote address was delivered by Dr. M. Guhapriya, Head & Assistant professor, Department of Computer Science. Next a welcome BGM and a last year events AV was played for the first year students by the second year students. Next to that, lot of technical games was organized by the second year students to the first year students. Most of the first year students had eagerly participated in all the events and enjoyed each and every moment of the event.
