A REPORT ON A ONE DAY STATE LEVEL SEMINAR ON

“ A READING WITHIN AND WITHOUT THE TEXT OF WOMEN’S WRITING”

The English Department decided to host A One Day State Level Seminar on 20.03.2023, with a relevant topic, “A READING WITHIN AND WITHOUT THE TEXT OF WOMEN’S WRITING”. Extensive preparations were made to form committees, send invitations along with brochures, find the Resource person, and so on. When the time arrived, the seminar began with a prayer song, sung by the choir, followed by the Assistant Professor and Head Ms.M.Vennila, who was invited to welcome the participants. Then the principal, Rev.Sr.Sirumalar, was humbly requested to give the presidential Address.

Then Dr.Sajitha, Assistant Professor of English, was called to introduce the chief Guest, Dr.Jeyapriya, Associate Professor and Head, Department of English, Mother Teresa Women's University, Kodaikanal, who was invited to give a key note address to the participants. She spoke at length and expounded in various ways how Women's writing in Literature do to the participants. Then Ms.T.Punithavathi, Assistant Professor of English, called to introduce the chief guest, Writer and Novelist BAMA, invited to give Special Address of the gatherings, her speech was awe inspiring, revealing and knowledgeable. She extensively dealt with the, almost the entire in English Literature, with a special emphasis on women writers and feminist writers. It was worth listening to her vast knowledge on the matters she spoke to the participants. Then Rev. Sr.Amali Pushpam, the Vice-Principal, was asked to give Felicitation. Nearly 12 Colleges were participated along with 106 students.

It was then the time to conclude the seminar. Hence, Ms.T.Karthika, the Assistant Professor, proposed a vote of thanks, and the seminar was concluded with College Anthem.

The Seminar capitulate the following desired outcome:
