A REPORT ON THE ONLINE VALEDICTION PROGRAMME OF THE BRIDGE – COURSE FOR THE BEGINNERS ON “PATH FINDING”

An intensive Bridge course on the Path finding for the First year students was wound up by the following Valediction programme held on 29th September, 2021 at 9.30am. The course was a 15 day programme, conducted by the external experts and Resource Persons.

The Chief Guest invited for today's Valediction function was Dr.P.Selvi, the Associate Professor and Head, PG and Research Department of English, from Arulmigu Palaniandavar College for women, Palani. The Course coordinator were Mr.Amalraj, Asst.Prof and Ms.M.Vennila, Assistant Prof and Head of the Department. The organizing members were Ms.Jemima Joshuin, Assistant Professor and Ms.Karthiga, Assistant Professor, department of English. The Chief Patron of the programme was Rev.Sr.Dr.Mariammal, the Secretary of the College.

At 9.30am, the programme was started, the College Choir to lead the participants of the function towards a prayerful atmosphere by singing a hymn. This was followed by Ms.Jemima, being called to give a welcome address. It was to be followed by the Presidential address. Hence, the Secretary of the college was invited for the same. Then, the Principal was requested to give a special address. This was then followed by a Felicitation address, to be given by Rev.Sr. Amali Pushpam, the Vice Principal. Then, Mrs.S.Rasheedha Begum, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Commerce was requested to give another Felicitation address.

When all the participants were eagerly waiting for the guest speaker's speech, Dr.Selvi was humbly requested to give the valedictory address. She spoke on the relevance of English and the need for pursuing it intensely and ardently. She also recommended the audience to keep speaking in English, so that fluency can be gained.

The programme was concluded at 10.30am with a vote of thanks rendered by Ms.Karthika.
